

DAVID HUME AT 300: An International and Interdisciplinary Conference

April 26, 2011

Jackman Humanities Building, Room 100

170 St. George St., Toronto

Canada

Program

9:00-10:30: Christina Lupton (English, Michigan): “Hume and Beattie on the Page”

10:45-12:15: James Harris (Philosophy, St. Andrews): “Of the Different Species of Philosophy in Hume’s Intellectual Biography”

2:00-3:30: Ian Balfour (English, York): “Tragedy, Sublimity, Taste: Invention and Intervention in Hume’s Aesthetics”

3:45-5:15: Andrew Sabl, “Hume’s Politics: Dynamic Coordination in the History of England”

5:15-6:30: Birthday Celebration: David Hume was born on April 26, 1711 (Old Style)

Conference Organizers

Deidre Lynch, Chancellor Jackman Professor, Department of English

Donald Ainslie, Chair, Department of Philosophy

Conference Sponsors

Department of Philosophy

Department of Political Science

Department of English

Chancellor Jackman Professorships in English

Jackman Humanities Institute Program for the Arts

Contact

Kim Yates, Jackman Humanities Institute, jhi.associate@utoronto.ca