The Hume Society is pleased to announce its fortieth annual conference. We invite papers in all areas of Hume studies but especially welcome submissions bearing some relation to the conference themes.

These are the themes:

Hume and the Ancients and Moderns

Skepticism and Sentiment

Justice and Society

Papers should be no more than thirty minutes reading length (four thousand words), with self-references deleted for anonymous review. Papers must be submitted in English, but those selected may be presented in the author's language of choice. Papers should not have been published by the date of the conference. Authors should submit their papers in either MS Word or rich text format (RTF) to the Hume Society Conference website.

Prior to March 1, 2012 submissions may be sent directly to the Vice President at vicepresident@humesociety.org.

Hume Society Young Scholar Awards are given to qualifying graduate students whose papers are accepted through the normal anonymous-review process.

Deadline for Submissions: November 1, 2012.
